

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

FROM: DOCAT

The Social Teaching of the Catholic Church

God's Master Plan
Love

20. What is the Church's task in God's master plan?

The master plan of God's love is the salvation and redemption of all men through his Son, Jesus Christ. The Church exists because Jesus invited us to enter into deep, saving communion with him. This communion, the "Body of Christ", is the Church. Through baptism and the other sacraments, we belong to Christ and, through him, are endowed with a new, everlasting life. Through heeding the word of God, we obey his will. The Church is the place where we can develop in God's love. The Church is not an end in herself. She bears responsibility for mankind and society and must by her work contribute to the peace and development of the human family.

21. Is the Kingdom of God already visible in the Church?

The Church exists "in order that space may be made in the world for God, so that he may dwell therein and the world may thus become his 'Kingdom'" (Joseph Ratzinger). With Jesus Christ, the Kingdom of God has really started in the world. Wherever the sacraments are administered, the old world of sin and death is conquered at its root and transformed. A new creation begins; the Kingdom of God becomes visible. The sacraments are only empty signs, however, if Christians do not translate the new life that has been granted them into authentic action. One cannot go to Communion and at the same time deny others their daily bread. The sacraments call us to a love that is willing "to go out of [itself] and to go to the peripheries, not only geographically, but also to the existential peripheries: the mystery of sin, of suffering, of injustice, of ignorance and indifference to religion, of intellectual currents, and of all sorts of poverty" (speech by Cardinal Bergoglio in the pre-conclave, 2013).

'VOCATION SEEDS'

The Good Shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them. Is He asking you to help others to find Him? Pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and religious life, especially for our archdiocese, that God will raise up good shepherds in our midst. If God is calling you,

SHARELIFE

Living the Gospel by providing for those in need

“One of the core components of our Pastoral Plan is Catholic Outreach in Justice and Love. As a Catholic Community we are called to be the hands and face of Jesus in our communities. One of the ways that we do this is through our annual ShareLife appeal, which provides resources to agencies serving the poor and marginalized not only in our archdiocese, but also around the world. ShareLife is a tangible way that we can put the Gospel value to love one another as I have loved you into action, and I invite all parishioners to support the mission work of the Catholic church by making a sacrificial gift to ShareLife.” -Thomas Cardinal Collins, Archbishop of Toronto

Today is the 2nd instalment of the ShareLife Campaign

RETREAT for CATHOLIC PARENTS of Lesbian Daughters and Gay Sons
Saturday 3 June 2017

Catholic parents testify that a welcoming, respectful and sensitive attitude by their parish community is especially important when they are dealing with a child's disclosure of same-sex attraction. Offer your patient assistance to parents who are grappling with the challenge of supporting a son or daughter who is coming to terms with same sex attraction and may experience isolation or repressing silence. Ostracism or the fear of being rejected, or even hated, frequently contributes to the despair that all too often is felt by these young persons. We urge you to be attentive to their parents, reducing their isolation and worry by your counsel.
