

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

God's Master Plan Love

9. How can God be found?

God can be found only if he shows to us or (to say the same thing with another word) reveals himself to us. We do have by nature an intuition of God and can also recognize through reflection the fact that God exists. But it is beyond our understanding exactly what God is like, what his thoughts and plans are. God himself, therefore, must communicate to us what he is like. He does not do that by sending us an idea, a book, or a political system; he did so by becoming man. In Jesus Christ God revealed himself completely and definitively: God became man so that man might understand who God is. Jesus is God's language.

10. How did God reveal himself to mankind before Jesus?

The existence of God was never beyond the knowledge of human reason. Over the history of Israel's faith, God revealed something of his interior life and spoke to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. He commanded Moses to free his people from slavery in Egypt. Again and again he called prophets to speak and act publicly in his name.

11. How do the People of Israel respond to God's communication of himself?

When God shows himself, man must set everything else aside and reflect on how his life is changed in the sight of the living God. Once God is known, nothing can remain as it was. The People of Israel make this clear through their response to the covenant of God makes with them. God gave the Ten Commandments to Moses on Mount Sinai (Ex 19-24). If we obey the Commandments and so try to act justly, then that is our response to God's loving gift. In that way we have the opportunity to collaborate in God's master plan for the world and for history.

SHARELIFE

Living the Gospel by supporting ShareLife

“ The ShareLife campaign provides for the needs of our social service agencies, helps to evangelize the Gospel to brothers and sisters in Christ across the world, and supports the education of our clergy. It is important that we continue to support the ShareLife appeal, to provide for the needs of the marginalized both here in our communities and around the world. Sometimes the results are obvious and sometimes they’re invisible but, always they make a tangible difference in the lives of the people we are helping. Please prayerfully consider how you can be supportive today on ShareLife Sunday.”
